NBPHE PARTNERSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

NATIONAL BOARD OF PUBLIC HEALTH EXAMINERS

NBPHE

Credentialing Public Health Professionals

The National Board of Public Health Examiners (NBPHE) is eager to support organizations dedicated to strengthening the public health workforce and investing in their employees and members to ensure that new and current public health professionals meet national standards and have professional growth opportunities.

PARTNERSHIP OBJECTIVES

- Enhancing the impact of NBPHE certifications for the public health workforce.
- Supporting public health employers, schools and programs, and member organizations to promote and adopt certification for their employees, students, and members.
- Promoting networking opportunities for Certificants through ambassador programs, social media engagement, and participation in NBPHC sponsored webinars and meetings.
- Facilitating ongoing professional development for the public health workforce through maintenance of public health credentials.

PARTNER BENEFITS

NBPHE is committed to supporting our partners to enhance the impact of certification and advance the public health workforce. We dedicate time, knowledge, and resources to nurture our relationships, and we would love to partner with you!

NBPHE provides support to partner organizations through:
